Matthew 1:1; 3-5a; Joshua 2 - Rahab and the people of Israel

1. Opening: Walls (literal and metaphorical) can be good and bad. Share about a wall you were grateful for and / or a wall you lamented.
2. The story of Rahab is much more familiar than last week's story of Judah and Tamar. But sometimes the 'Sunday School version' misses things. As you review the story recorded in Joshua 2 (and also Joshua 6; cf. Hebrews 11:31, James 2:25) and consider the way Pastor Cara framed the story, what strikes you?
3. Was Rahab's kindness [hesed] surprising? Was God's kindness [hesed] to Rahab surprising? Share about a time when you were surprised by someone's kindness.
4. Is kindness a solution to fear? Why or why not? Give an example.

Close by sharing your joys and concerns and praying together.
